

10,000 Subscribers enroll at The Grant Portal

The Grant Portal is the leading internet catalog of available grants for non-profits, small businesses and individuals

DEERFIELD BEACH, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, June 10, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Grant Portal achieved a significant milestone in May '24 by attracting more than 10,000 subscribers who enrolled in the site's free Grant Alert Notification service. Subscribers create their profile and select grant notifications by interest, location and eligibility. Notifications are sent via email on a frequent basis with the latest grant offerings.

Largest Online Grant Catalog

The Grant Portal is the internet's largest catalog of grant providers that are currently accepting grant applications. The Grant Portal offers more than 60 grant categories that include grants for nonprofits, for-profits, small business, enterprise, startups, schools, research teams, technology development, entrepreneurs, visionaries, people of color, underserved communities, veterans, men, women, youth and individuals from every sector in the USA.

The Grant Portal was created to help all organizations and individuals have easy access to free money grants. "2024 has been an exceptional year for grant seekers from the perspective that there is a huge volume of available grants for qualified recipients," stated Gregg Troyanowski, president of The Grant Portal. "We are pleased to support our grant community with The Grant Portal's valuable Grant Alert Notification service."

In addition to the massive number of available grants, The Grant Portal publishes the IRS 990-PF Directory, a comprehensive list of the most recently published data by the IRS of over 128,179 private foundations, 1,372,624 grant recipients, 5,421,774 awarded grants and $287.6 billion in awarded funds since 2020.
