Making a Difference

A Brighter Day's mission is to provide teens and their families with essential mental health and parenting resources to prevent teen suicide. Through community events, virtual support groups, crisis intervention, and partnerships with therapists, A Brighter Day is making a profound impact. Your participation and support can help save lives.

Over 35,000 community members gather at last year's A Brighter Day Charity Car Show, enjoying the festivities and supporting a vital cause.

Be Part of the Change

What moves me most about this car show is the community's willingness to come together for a cause that affects us all. Your support means everything."

Elliot Kallen, Founder & President of A Brighter Day

"We are incredibly excited to host the 2nd Annual Car Show at Broadway Plaza," said Domenico Frank De Luca, Director of Corporate Partnerships & Board Member of A Brighter Day. "This event blends excitement and compassion. Together, we can create a brighter future for our teens and families."

About A Brighter Day

Our vision is to create a world where teen suicide is no longer an epidemic. We provide resources, education, and emotional support to strengthen the bond between parents and teens, ensuring they feel valued and supported during mental health challenges.

About the Charity

Founded by Elliot Kallen after the tragic loss of his son Jake to suicide, A Brighter Day offers a three-month free BetterHelp therapy program, a dedicated crisis text line (simply text BRIGHTER to 741741 for immediate crisis support), parent support webinars, and care navigation. Elliot's mission is to ensure that no other family has to endure the heartbreak of losing a child to suicide.
