Memorial Park. FREE to the public, generous sponsors have lined up again for 2 days of classic rock. Attendance at ULCF's Payson and Orem (Come Together) festivals has topped 14000 to date with expanding features for family friendly fan fun. Food trucks, car shows, and rumored farmers market are coming together for a rocking good time. Not to mention hourly giveaways worth thousands.

“Success of our ULCF festivals is demonstrated by increased sponsorship and the number of bands applying to play,” states John Pilmer, ULCF trustee and CEO of multi-year sponsor PilmerPR, a Benefit LLC. “So many trustees and event planning committee members have donated hundreds of hours to polish professional events.”

This year's band lineup for Payson is found on the enhanced ULCF website, complete with downloadable pictures and recordings of favorite bands from past events.

This year's sponsors include guitar/amp combo giveaways of by Boothe Music and Best in Music.
