loosely fitted or spandex table covers. For trade show attendees, Splash Tents, Inc. offers digital backdrops with logos or step repeat banners, as well as affordable floor displays with literature stands and podiums. And to relieve the stress of standing at trade show booths for lengthy periods of time, the company offers a selection of tall and regular sized director's chairs.

Many customers have expressed appreciation for the digitally printed flag banner that can be hoisted on top of their trade show tent display, visible from over 50 feet away—an invaluable asset in an over-crowded trade show. Additionally, all trade show exhibit booth displays fit into a small bag - just press a button or unhook one piece and the entire display folds into a bag.

“Our custom tailored well thought out designs will leave you speechless and generate high foot traffic,” says Zohra Charanya, Director of Sales & Marketing at Splash Tents, Inc. “Simply send your logos in with your website and let us do the rest. We do research on your company, from your collateral to brand colors to brand guidelines to social media links. We got you covered!”

Charanya adds that the company is proud to offer quick turnaround times, (as fast as five days), and exceptional customer service. With over 300 positive reviews on Google, Yelp, and Facebook, and zero returns or complaints in the past 15+ years, Splash Tents, Inc. demonstrates a proven track record of customer satisfaction.

“Zohra is the consummate professional,” says David Harding, Owner/Operator at Beaver Tails Sudbury. “While searching for a tent supplier from several choices, Zohra was the first to bring me in by finding out what I wanted to buy, not by pushing what she wanted to sell. You can try and do it all yourself, or you can do it right once with Zohra... and you can quote me on that.”
