

Emilia Vaughn's "Skeleton" Locks Up 2024 HIMA Nomination and Climbs the All Access Charts

Emilia Vaughn's "Skeleton" has been nominated for a 2024 Hollywood Independent Music Award and has climbed to #23 on the All Access What's In-Store Chart.

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, June 6, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Emilia Vaughn released her 2024 alternative single, "Skeleton," on March 1, 2024. The haunting ballad, which was Vaughn's first single of the new year, has quickly become a fan and industry favorite and was recently recognized by the Hollywood Independent Music Awards (HIMA), securing a first-round nomination and public announcement on HIMA's Official Instagram page on May 13. The live awards ceremony will be held at the Avalon, Hollywood in Los Angeles on July 18, 2024.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart for your support, but most importantly, thank you to the listeners and my new fans who have made it possible to make music and continue to do what I love.”

The timing of Emilia Vaughn's nomination complements her rising chart position on the All Access What's In-Store Chart for the song's growing popularity, racking up 20,000+ spins per week and playing in over 12,500 stores across the United States. She shares the top 60 seats on this chart with Jackie Evancho, Train, Sofia Carson, and LANY. The song initially debuted at #56 on April 22, and has climbed to #23 over the past six weeks.

"Skeleton" was released independently under Emilia Vaughn Entertainment and Media Group, LLC, with the loss of a meaningful relationship that you had given everything to. To love and not have that same love reciprocated by an unfaithful partner is something that almost everyone can relate to, and this song puts those feelings into words. It is painful, emotional, and haunting and has particularly resonated with young women.

"This is a special song to me. I wrote it during a time in my life when I felt betrayed by someone I cared for deeply. To heal my mind, body, and soul, I found therapy and strength in writing "Skeleton," figuratively asking for everything back that had been taken from me. Knowing that people who have gone through similar infidelity have found comfort and strength through this song brings solace. I am humbled and honored with the HIMA nomination and the amazing support I have received from What's In-Store and all the programmers who have given me the platform and opportunity to share music and therapeutic messages with the world. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for your support, but most importantly, thank you to the listeners and my new fans who have made it possible to make music and continue to do what I love. "
