

The Explorer Pass is a New Savings Pass in the Valley Offering Phoenix Locals Big Discounts on Family Fun

This pass offers discounts on a variety of family-friendly attractions, from shops to trampoline parks, and can be used multiple times throughout the week.

PHOENIX, AZ, UNITED STATES, June 6, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Families in the Valley can now enjoy more affordable and exciting activities with the launch of a new savings pass, The Explorer Pass. This pass offers discounts on a variety of family-friendly attractions, from shops to trampoline parks, and can be used multiple times throughout the week.

The savings pass includes deals at popular local businesses such as Andretti Indoor Karting, where families can buy $20 in arcade play and get $20 in arcade play. At Big Air Chandler, pass-holders can enjoy 50% off admission, making it the perfect way for kids to jump, play, and have a blast. Other participating businesses include shops, toddler indoor play, swim schools, hair salons for kids, and other local businesses.

What sets this savings pass apart is that it is not a one-time use pass. Most of the discounts can be used up to once per day, allowing families to save on multiple visits to their favorite attractions. This makes it a great option for families looking for affordable and fun activities to do throughout the year.

"We are excited to offer this savings pass to Phoenix locals," said Lindsay Valerio creator of kidizona and one of the founders of the new Explorer Pass. "Our goal is to make family fun more accessible and affordable for the community. With discounts at a variety of businesses, there is something for everyone to enjoy. We hope this pass will encourage families to explore all that
