(CIU) is proud to announce that it has received accreditation from the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP) for all its business degree programs as of May 20, 2024.

This significant milestone underscores CIU's commitment to providing high-quality education and enhancing the academic and professional success of its students.

Mayra Rodriguez, CIU's Compliance Manager, was pivotal in leading the university through the rigorous accreditation process. Her dedication and expertise ensured that CIU met the stringent standards set by ACBSP, which is recognized globally for its commitment to teaching excellence and continuous improvement in business education.

What ACBSP Accreditation Means for CIU Students:

- Enhanced Educational Quality: ACBSP accreditation signifies that CIU's programs adhere to the highest standards of teaching and learning. Students can be confident that their education is comprehensive, relevant, and of the highest quality.
- Global Recognition: With ACBSP accreditation, CIU degrees are recognized worldwide. This opens doors for students to pursue international career opportunities and further studies.
- Continuous Improvement: ACBSP requires ongoing evaluation and improvement to ensure that CIU remains at the forefront of business education. Students will benefit from a curriculum that evolves with the latest industry trends and educational advancements.
- Student-Centered Learning: The accreditation process emphasized CIU's commitment to a student-centered approach. This means personalized attention, support services, and a learning environment tailored to help students succeed.

- Career Readiness: Employers recognize ACBSP accreditation as a mark of excellence. CIU graduates will be well-prepared to enter the workforce, equipped with the skills and knowledge demanded by today's competitive job market.

CIU specializes in business degrees, focusing on graduate education, particularly the Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) and Master of Business Administration (MBA) programs. Most CIU's students are enrolled in the DBA program, reflecting the university's dedication to providing advanced, research-driven education that prepares students for leadership roles in the business world. This ACBSP accreditation is in addition to CIU's institutional accreditation from the Distance Education Accrediting Commission (DEAC), further solidifying the university's reputation for educational excellence.

Richard Madrigal, CEO and President of CIU, expressed his pride in this achievement, stating, "Obtaining ACBSP accreditation is a testament to our unwavering dedication to student success and academic excellence. We are immensely proud of Mayra Rodriguez and our entire team for their hard work and commitment to this goal. This accreditation reinforces our mission to provide a transformative education that empowers our students to achieve their professional aspirations."

This achievement aligns perfectly with CIU's mission: "California Intercontinental University offers relevant, in-demand accredited online programs designed to enhance each student's professional career. CIU is committed to equipping the next generation of business professionals, leaders, and entrepreneurs with the confidence, qualifications, and competence to succeed in the global business community and economy."

Looking forward, CIU is eager to continue its journey toward excellence and achieve its next accreditation milestone, further enhancing the quality of education and opportunities for its students.
