

Washington DC Metro Construction Company President Rick Compton Retires After 25 Years with Scott-Long Construction

In June, Scott-Long Construction will say goodbye to one of its most dedicated team members, President Rick Compton.

CHANTILLY , VIRGINIA, UNITED STATES, June 11, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Rick Compton has spent almost 25 years at Washinton DC Metro construction company, Scott-Long Construction. In 2001, Compton began working at the company as Project Manager. In April of 2021, Compton was named president of the company.

“Rick has shown up to work every day with a passion and dedication for the projects we do at Scott-Long Construction,” said John Scott, CEO of the Washington DC Metro commercial construction company. “He will be greatly missed in our office but will always remain part of the company family.”

During his time at the company, Compton has supervised various commercial construction projects in the healthcare, senior living, multi-family, restaurant, and church construction industries.

Over the decades, Rick has seen the family-owned company grow in its expertise and capacity for larger, more complex projects. Compton says the team has earned stature as a dependable partner for projects of all sizes and expresses pride in the company’s reputation for excellence.

As he steps down, President Compton leaves behind a confident message, “Scott-Long Construction is well-prepared to deliver exceptional results, irrespective of project size. Our team is equipped with the necessary expertise and resources to tackle bigger challenges, ensuring each project receives the attention it deserves.”

Compton is proud of the work he has been able to accomplish during his time with the company.

“The buildings that Scott-Long Construction has completed have bettered our communities,” said Compton. “The projects done by our team have provided healthcare facilities with updates that benefit patients and providers, have allowed restaurants and car washes to open with state-of-the-art facilities, and have given churchgoers larger worship spaces.”

Compton will be honored with a retirement celebration from the company on Thursday, June 13th.

David Uffelman, the current Vice president of Scott-Long Construction, will take over as President.

“

Rick has shown up to work every day with passion and dedication for the projects we do. He will be greatly missed in our office but will always remain part of the company family.”

John Scott, CEO

“I have big shoes to fill,” said Uffelman. “However, I look forward to continuing to lead our team and make a difference in our community through the projects we complete.”

Our Mission

We promise to simplify the complex, deliver award-winning quality, and foster win-wins through the power of collaboration, expertise, planning, and attention to detail.

This is accomplished with a foundational mission to care for our customers' purpose, goals, and perceptions.

About Scott-Long Construction

Scott-Long Construction has been a leader in the development and construction industry since 1961. Located in the Washington Metropolitan Region, Scott-Long Construction has built several long-standing relationships through General Contracting and Development Management services. The approach puts the customer at the forefront by caring for their purpose, goals, and perceptions. Scott-Long has also developed strong relationships with design partners, subcontractors, and vendors to strengthen efforts to deliver a quality product.

Cheryl Heppard
Heppard PR & Consulting
+1 248-973-7669
email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/717993157>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2024 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.