

Texas/Nashville Country Music Sensation, Joey Green, Joins the 2024 USO Talent Corps

NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, June 11, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Joey Green, talented songwriter, storyteller, and performer announced today that he has joined the newly launched USO Talent Corps 2024 Tour to uplift and support military families across the Globe. From in-person tours and virtual experiences to concerts and meet-and-greets, the USO Talent Corps is leveraging every platform available to ensure that no matter where service members are, they feel the support and appreciation our country feels for those who have sacrificed so much.

With eight albums to his credit, the latest "Heart Lessons," a 7-song EP, was released in November of 2023. He debuted the new album when he opened for CMA "Entertainer of the Year", Lainey Wilson, at Billy Bob's Texas leaving fans wanting more. "Heart Lesson" and "Bury My Heart (Dive Bar)" earned coveted spots on Spotify's 'New Music Friday' and "Fresh Finds Country" playlists.

His last EP "Puttin' It Out There" (2022) landed singles on Spotify's 'New Music Nashville', 'Fresh Finds Country', and 'LA Pop Tunes' playlists. Joey's music video for "This House Ain't Big Enough" had a successful run with national premieres on CMT, Country Rebel, Heartland, and Nashville Country TV and concluded an uninterrupted ten months in the "Taste of Country" Top 10 Country Music Video Countdown. His most recent single "Heartbroke" spent six months in the Top 5 on the Taste of Country Top 10 Countdown.

Green has become a household name in Texas and beyond for his rock 'n' roll to soul country rollercoaster ride of a live show. With songs telling his story of real-world experiences and a powerhouse vocal range fans just can't get enough. His undeniable stage presence, high energy, and absolute command of the audience make him a rockstar performer. Joey has amassed 101K+ social media followers, 107K+ monthly listeners, 6M+ video streams, and 6.1+ digital streams further solidifying his position as one of the most promising rising country music stars.

I am honored to be teaming up with the USO Talent Corps, to bring entertainment straight to our military service members and their families both at home and abroad.”
