Learning Through Understanding

Learning through understanding, Insurance School of TampaBay

Following the Insurance School of Southwest Florida's acquisition by HelpingClicks Corp during the COVID-19 pandemic, the school was rebranded as the Insurance School of Tampa Bay. Classes have been restructured with pre-recorded lectures that students can access 24/7/365, allowing for a flexible learning experience.

"We are excited to offer a new way of learning with our online pre-licensed classes," said Christopher P. Kazor, CEO of HelpingClicks Corp. "Students can now access lectures, quizzes, exams, and help tools from the comfort of their own home or office."

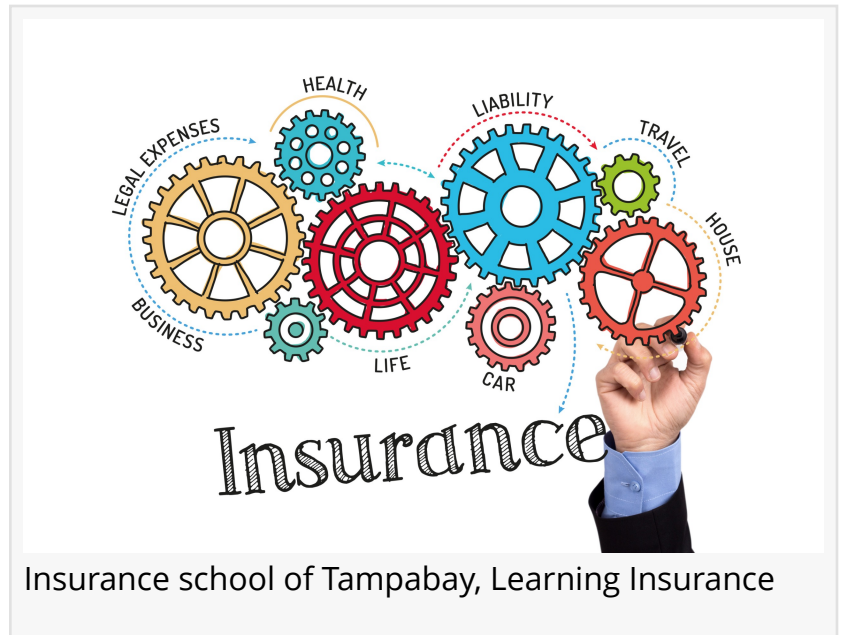

Students can choose from a variety of pre-licensed courses, including Florida License 214 Life & VA Only, Florida License 215 Life Health & VA, Florida License 240 Health Only, Florida License 2044 Personal Lines Property & Casualty, and Florida License 220 General Lines Property & Casualty. Upon registration and payment, students will receive access to a password-protected dashboard with all the necessary resources for completing the course.

Kazor also said, "Our greatest advantage is the weekly 'Office Hours' where students interact with an instructor to ask questions, review problems, clarify concepts without leaving their home or office,"

In addition, the Insurance School of Tampa Bay is offering a $25 discount on ANY class for those who register before July 15, 2024.
