“

This community is incredibly close-knit and family-oriented, and we are confident they will love our commitment to creating a fun environment for both children and their parents”

This new location coming to Nichols Hills will be staffed with top-tier stylists, and the salon will feature custom-designed, car-shaped chairs for younger children, as well as modern salon chairs for tweens and teens. Additionally, a party room is available for hosting events for up to 12 kids. The salon maintains a playful yet modern and minimalist aesthetic that parents will appreciate.

While waiting for their children's haircuts, parents can unwind, enjoying Jura espresso/coffee, sparkling water, mimosas, or wine. The salon will also offer a carefully selected range of professional kids' hair products from brands like Ever Eden, Amika, and Original Sprout, along with an array of toys and gifts.

Jackie Irwin, a seasoned business owner and entrepreneur, is at the helm of this new initiative. Jackie is deeply involved in the local community and is passionate about bringing the Sit Still experience to even more families in Oklahoma.

“We are beyond thrilled to open our second location. This community is incredibly close-knit and family-oriented, and we are confident they will love our commitment to creating a fun environment for both children and their parents,” said Jackie.

Sit Still Kids Nichols Hills will offer a broad spectrum of services for children, including haircuts, sparkle strands, braids, special styles, mini manicures, private parties, first haircut experiences, classes, and more. The salon prides itself on staying ahead of the latest trends and ensuring a fun experience for the entire family.
