Situated along the famed Museum Mile, the Kate Oh Gallery provides the perfect setting for "High Society," surrounded by the neighborhood's upscale residences, haute cuisine, and designer boutiques on Madison Avenue. Stout's work is known for capturing the essence of contemporary luxury, and this collection promises to be a profound continuation of his artistic narrative.

"High Society" features an array of Stout's signature vibrant and provocative artworks, each piece reflecting the intricacies and allure of the elite lifestyle. Visitors to the exhibition can expect a visual feast that blends Stout's bold aesthetic with themes of wealth and prestige, mirrored by the surrounding area's cultural and social richness.

The exhibition is anticipated to draw attention from art critics and enthusiasts alike, along with the neighborhood's cultured residents and visitors from around the globe. It offers a unique opportunity to engage with Stout's interpretations of high society, interpreted through his unique lens of modern art.
