YOUNGSTOWN , OHIO, UNITED STATES
, June 11, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ --
Global Tableware Collective (GTC) is pleased to announce the addition of Christeen Cesario to their team as Regional Manager. Christeen joins the GTC team, bringing with her a commitment to excellence and a fresh perspective to drive regional sales growth and success.

Christeen has a strong foundation in the hospitality industry with over 10 years of experience working with glassware & tabletop manufacturers.

Her knowledge of glassware will prove to be vital in promoting GTC's cornerstone brand, Stolze Lausitz, while her approach & vision align perfectly with GTC's mission of empowering tabletop brands. In her role as Regional Manager, Christeen will oversee operations in the Eastern Region of the United States and manage sales representatives in that territory. Christeen will ensure that GTC's standards of quality and customer satisfaction are upheld, while effectively driving growth and building relationships with customers.

"I am honored to join GTC and look forward to contributing to the company's continued success in my capacity as Regional Manager," said Christeen Cesario. "This is an exciting opportunity, and I am eager to collaborate with the team to achieve our regional objectives."

"As we continue to grow the GTC brand, we are enthusiastic and confident that Christeen will be a key player in promoting our products to the Eastern region," said Dino Mitsos, VP and General Manager at GTC. "Christeen's appointment emphasizes our commitment to expanding our regional leadership with talented and dynamic individuals."

As we continue to grow the GTC brand, we are enthusiastic and confident that Christeen will be a key player in promoting our products to the Eastern region.”

Dino Mitsos, VP and General Manager at GTC.
