"Our music tells stories and entertains both sonically and lyrically. It's fun and hopefully thought provoking. I think we are tapping into essential ideas, and so our music keeps flowing all around the world," says Ed Gumbrecht about his new release.

This is a perfect summer album.”

Eric Michael Lichter

Ed Gumbrecht's music has garnered two million streams worldwide, and "Any Given Day" is expected to continue the trend, captivating both long-time fans and new listeners alike. Known for his unique sound and lyrical depth, Ed pushes the boundaries of the singer/songwriter genre, and this latest release is no exception. The album features standout tracks such as Cup of

Joe, Waking Song, and Still Life each offering a unique perspective and showcasing Ed's versatility. The songs range from acoustic rock to country and western, always with a fresh and original flair.

Collaborating with talented musicians Eric Michael Lichter, Eli Novicky and Guido Falvene, Ed has crafted an album that is artistically and emotionally resonant. Lichter produced the album at Dirt Floor Studios in Connecticut. He says, "'Any Given Day' is the third record Ed and I have made together, and it's our best work together yet. Every song is sure to stay in your head, as they are still all running around in mine! This is a perfect summer album."

Fans can listen to "Any Given Day" on their preferred streaming platform starting June 7th. To stay updated on Ed's latest news and upcoming live performances, visit www.edgumbrecht.com and follow him on social media.
