A Journey from Adjuster to Founder

Jean Sada's journey in the insurance industry began in 2013 as an auto damage adjuster. Over the years, Jean has worked as a liability, injury, commercial, and casualty adjuster, gaining a comprehensive understanding of insurance policies from a claims perspective. This extensive background inspired Jean to establish HCIH Insurance Agency, aiming to address the coverage gaps that often leave policyholders vulnerable.

A Unique Approach to Insurance

What sets HCIH Insurance Agency apart from the competition is Jean's unique approach to insurance. Unlike traditional insurance salesmen, Jean views policies through the lens of an adjuster, focusing on the claims process rather than merely selling policies. This approach ensures that clients receive advice tailored to their specific needs, minimizing risks and enhancing their protection.

Educating Clients for Better Protection

HCIH stands for "How Can I Help," reflecting Jean's commitment to client education. The agency's mission is to empower clients with the knowledge they need to make informed decisions about their insurance coverage. By educating clients, HCIH Insurance Agency helps them better protect themselves, ensuring that they understand the importance of comprehensive coverages. "The most expensive policy is the one that does not pay," Jean emphasizes, highlighting the critical role of proper insurance in financial security.

Jean Sada: An Author and Advocate

In addition to leading HCIH Insurance Agency, Jean Sada is a successful author. Jean's book, "Killing Time," is available on Amazon, showcasing insights and experiences from the insurance industry.
