Atelier is thrilled to announce its participation in Global Fashion Collective's Tokyo Fashion Week Spring/Summer 2025, set to take place from September 2nd to 6th, 2024. This event marks a significant milestone for the brand, as it prepares to unveil its latest collections to an international audience, highlighting a strategic shift in design focus.

Tokyo Fashion Week is noted for its avant-garde style and vibrant fashion scene, offering a unique platform for designers to present innovative and bold collections. The city's blend of tradition and modernity provides the perfect backdrop for Tess Mann Atelier's new direction.

Celebrated for exquisite bridal collections, creative director Tess Mann is now expanding into new design territories. The upcoming showcase will feature a diverse range of attire including evening wear, cocktail wear, resort and cruise wear, bespoke wardrobe pieces, and select bridal designs. This evolution reflects Tess Mann Atelier's commitment to innovation and meeting the dynamic needs of the fashion industry.

“I am incredibly excited to present our new collection in Tokyo, a city that perfectly captures the essence of innovation and tradition,” says Tess Mann. “Our designs aim to empower women and celebrate their individuality, and I believe Tokyo's fashion scene will resonate deeply with our vision.”

Global Fashion Collective, an extension of Vancouver Fashion Week, provides a prestigious platform for both emerging and established designers. Since its inception in 2017, GFC has been instrumental in showcasing talent in major fashion capitals worldwide, fostering global brand exposure and market expansion.
