

Innovation Networks Strengthens Position with Acquisition of Inline Computer Support

Innovation Networks acquires Inline Computer Support, enhancing IT services and customer focus, reinforcing leadership under Andreas Karakas and Charmis De Boer

RICHMOND, BC, CANADA, June 10, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Innovation Networks, a leading IT solutions provider, proudly announces its recent acquisition of Inline Computer Support, marking a significant milestone in the company's evolution within the IT industry.

Under the visionary leadership of Andreas Karakas (President) and Charmis De Boer (Vice-President), this strategic move underscores Innovation Networks' unwavering commitment to growth and solidifies its position as a premier IT solutions provider. With a shared vision and aligned values, the acquisition of Inline Computer Support reinforces Innovation Networks' dedication to excellence.

Andreas Karakas, CEO at Innovation Networks, emphasized the compatibility between the two companies: "Inline's unique, highly personable style of IT support seamlessly integrates with our company culture. Their commitment to clients, responsiveness, and customer-first approach mirrors our own values here at Innovation."

The decision to acquire Inline Computer Support followed meticulous planning and rigorous vetting. A foundation of mutual trust was established between the teams, ensuring a smooth transition for both employees and clients.

Jim Farewell, CEO of Inline Computers, expressed his confidence in the future: "As we embark on the next chapter for Inline, I sought a deserving company—one that would honor our excellent staff and loyal clients. Andreas and his team embody a strong sense of community, and they share our commitment to personalized service. Our clients can continue to rely on their favorite techs, and I believe our people will thrive under this new leadership."

To celebrate this momentous occasion, Innovation Networks will host a special welcome event in June, bringing together employees from both companies to foster new relationships and celebrate the exciting journey ahead.

Charmis De Boer, Vice-President, expressed gratitude to the dedicated teams whose hard work, passion, and expertise made this acquisition possible. "We eagerly anticipate integrating our new talented members into the Innovation Networks family," she said.
