FlyFin, the #1 AI and CPA tax preparation and filing service, announced the launch of its Ultimate Plan subscription for businesses, designed to address the unique tax challenges faced by complex business entities.

Double taxation and high C Corp tax rates are common complaints from business owners operating a C Corporation. Pass-through entities like S Corporations are exempt from double taxation, but are bound by strict IRS requirements when paying S corp taxes.

Partnerships (and LLCs taxed as S Corps) also face complex filing requirements, including detailed partnership tax returns, LLC tax forms and calculating the distribution of income among partners. All these entities also have to navigate state tax laws, the self-employment tax rate, maintaining accurate records and keeping up with IRS updates.

FlyFin's Ultimate Plan is tailored to address these challenges. It is designed to be an upgrade from the Premium Plan (for LLC taxes). For just $41 per month, the Ultimate Plan comes with a suite of features to help manage small business taxes, including:

A dedicated expert CPA specializing in complex business structures

Complete state tax filing services

Free audit insurance

Specialized handling of international tax obligations

1:1 video calls, unlimited tax support and strategic tax planning from a CPA

Quarterly tax calculator

Income tracker

Calculating monthly set-aside amount

Additionally, users can get access to a 1099 tax calculator to find relevant deductions to keep taxes as low as possible.

“We want to make taxes effortless for our users, and we know that filing business taxes can be complex,” says Jaideep Singh, CEO of FlyFin. “The Ultimate Plan was crafted as a solution that is comprehensive, user-friendly, and a step up from the Premium Plan so business owners get their money’s worth.”

With a range of features and expert support, taxpayers can use FlyFin’s Ultimate Plan to alleviate their tax-related stress and focus on growing their business.
