New Additions: Science Center and ATV Xtreme

With the add-ons of the science center and ATV Xtreme, there are even more opportunities to learn through experiences. Gem mining combines a sense of adventure and discovery with knowledge. They will learn about rock types, fossils, and gemology. The Xtreme Reptiles and Lab Science Center is a new educational platform with nature, reptiles, and life's chemistry. These programs cover several grade standards in the N.C. education curriculum.

Riding all-terrain vehicles is a great way to add adventure with the chance to explore nature. The ATV adventure combines a safety and operation lesson with the opportunity to drive across the three-acre ATV park, using the trails that include small jumps, hills, and curves. This activity requires riders to be 8 – 12 years of age, 5' in height, and weigh at least 100 lbs.
