Risk Council (MRC), a global non-profit membership association for payments and fraud prevention professionals, announced the FY24-25 board members for its Global Board of Directors and four Regional Advisory Boards in APAC, LATAM, Europe, and North America.

Julie Ferguson, CEO Merchant Risk Council

“Each of these new board members will add tremendous value to the organization and bring expertise unique to their region on payments and fraud trends, as well as innovations,” said Julie Ferguson, Merchant Risk Council CEO. “Our board members are an integral part of the organization as their ideas, direction, and contributions provide guidance and support to the MRC.”

The MRC brings together eCommerce payments and fraud prevention professionals from global merchants, solution providers, and law enforcement agencies to share fraud/risk mitigation and payment optimization strategies – making the entire ecommerce ecosystem safer and more profitable.

The MRC Global Board of Directors ensures that the MRC operates at the highest legal and ethical standards. The MRC has also established Regional Advisory Boards in North America, Europe, APAC, and LATAM. The Regional Advisors bring a unique perspective to the MRC, offering invaluable leadership, experience, and local industry knowledge.

"We're thrilled to announce the appointment of our newly elected board members," says Tina VanBrunt, Director Trust and Safety, Gametime, and Co-Chair of the MRC Board of Directors. "Their diverse backgrounds, proven leadership, and unwavering commitment to excellence bring a wealth of expertise to our organization."

Micheál Egan, Head of Payment Operations, Retail InMotion, and fellow Co-Chair of the MRC Board of Directors adds: "We are excited to welcome on board the latest MRC board appointments and very grateful for the time, knowledge, and expertise they generously give to this wonderful community of payment and fraud prevention professionals."

In addition, after a close election from a talented pool of candidates, the MRC is proud to announce the election results for the global board: Stuart Mann has been re-elected to the solution provider seat, and Kristen Morrow-Greven has been elected to fill the merchant seat.
