Chef Marcus Guiliano

Chef Marcus Guiliano, an award-winning chef-restaurateur and a leading food activist, will be sharing his passion for sustainability and ethically sourced ingredients. Known as "America's Top Food Activist" by One Green Planet, Marcus, alongside his wife, founded Aroma Thyme Bistro, the Most Awarded Restaurant in the Hudson Valley. Festival attendees can look forward to Marcus's insightful demonstrations that highlight his innovative approach to farm-to-table dining.

Chef Ric Orlando

A culinary legend in the Hudson Valley, Chef Ric Orlando will bring his vibrant personality and unmatched expertise to the festival. A two-time Chopped winner and former chef/owner of New World Home Cooking, Ric Orlando continues to inspire through cooking classes, pop-up events, and his new line of seasonings and sauces, Ric Orlando's Best. His session promises to be an exciting blend of culinary skill and engaging storytelling.

Chef Vincent Tropepe

Brooklyn native Chef Vincent Tropepe, known for his deep Italian roots and extensive experience in the food industry, will be presenting at the festival. Vincent, a celebrated cookbook author and culinary expert, will share his journey and expertise, offering attendees a glimpse into his acclaimed cookbooks, including "From Behind the Kitchen Doors" and "Roasted, Chopped, & Beaten."

Chef Natacha Gomez Dupuy
Chef Natacha Gomez Dupuy, a prominent figure in Caribbean cuisine, will showcase her award-winning culinary skills and passion for sustainable practices. As a travel chef and food activist, Natacha brings Caribbean flavors to life, offering immersive culinary experiences. Co-owner of "Classy Pairings by Natacha Gomez," she will share her expertise in traditional and innovative Caribbean dishes, as well as expert wine pairings.

Debbie Gioquindo
Debbie Gioquindo, affectionately known as the Hudson Valley Wine Goddess, will enlighten festival-goers with her extensive knowledge of wine. A Certified Travel Counselor, Certified Specialist in Wine, and Certified Sherry Wine Specialist, Debbie's demonstrations will provide valuable insights into wine pairing and tasting, drawing from her experience as the Executive Director for Hudson Valley Wine Country.

The Catskills Cocktail Club
