Master of Transformation

Agnes has an exceptional talent for quickly identifying the root cause of problems. With 26 years as an Aerospace Engineer, she excels at swiftly analyzing situations, formulating solutions, and implementing them efficiently. However, the stress of that lifestyle led her to seek clarity and balance. This journey led her to master the art of accessing the body's intelligence to restore physical, mental, and emotional well-being through training with 12 different chi kung instructors.

Specializing in PSYCH-K® facilitation, Tong Ren tapping, and other well-being modalities, Agnes guides her clients to

- Overcome limiting beliefs
- Shed old drama stories
- Embrace empowering narratives
- Unleash the creator to become the best version of yourself

This transformative journey will help others lead a more joyful life.

Inspirational Insights from Agnes

Agnes states, "Since almost 95% of your life operates on 'auto-pilot,' controlled by your subconscious mind, It's important to have a guide to help you break free from self-imposed limitations. Negative thoughts, self-sabotaging actions, and victim scenarios create roadblocks to joyful living. Just as you reboot or upgrade your computer, you can reboot or upgrade your internal supercomputer, the subconscious mind. Don't let a 'corrupted app' hold you back from becoming a better version of yourself."

Agnes has successfully helped her clients upgrade their human operating system and eliminate outdated subconscious beliefs to live better lives.

A Stellar Educational and Professional Background

Before embarking on her current career path and "spiritual calling", Agnes attended the Engineering Science Program at the University of Toronto, majoring in Aerospace Engineering. She also attended the Isenberg School of Management at the University of Massachusetts where she earned her MBA. She completed the Emerging Leaders Program at the University of Virginia Darden School of Business and the INSEAD/UTC Global Leadership Development Program.

Agnes is also recognized as a preferred facilitator for PSYCH-K®, has trained in Tui Na acupressure, Tong Ren tapping, Quantum Energy healing, gua sha and cupping from the Taoist Institute of Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM). Agnes has also completed the Transforming Drama to Designing Dreams Coaching program through the Bainbridge Leadership Center. In addition to her membership in the National Speakers Association (AZ Chapter), she is a member of the Amen Clinic Brain Health Professional community.
