

GENEDGE Launches Pharmaceutical Supply Chain Resources Program to Guide Suppliers Through Cybersecurity Compliance

MARTINSVILLE, VA, UNITED STATES, June 12, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- GENEDGE, Virginia's premier partner for manufacturing excellence and growth, is excited to announce a government-funded grant program aimed specifically at enhancing cybersecurity for small and medium-sized pharmaceutical suppliers.

Helping Manufacturers Innovate, Compete & Grow!

This initiative is designed to support companies in strengthening their cybersecurity posture, ensuring compliance, and protecting sensitive data. The program, offered at no cost, assists in handling crucial cybersecurity tasks. Only six participating companies will be able to take advantage of this limited-time opportunity.

We are thrilled to bring this valuable service and resource to manufacturers within the pharmaceutical industry"

David Bartlow, Program Manager

Program Services Include:

- Comprehensive cybersecurity assessments
- Identification of potential vulnerabilities
- Implementation of necessary cybersecurity controls
- Ongoing support and guidance

Along with the announcement of the grant program, GENEDGE is also launching a new Pharmaceutical Resources Page. This innovative online resource is designed to help pharmaceutical suppliers navigate the complex landscape of cybersecurity requirements with ease.

Overview of the Pharmaceutical Resources Page:

The Pharmaceutical Resources Page is meticulously structured to provide clear and comprehensive guidance to pharmaceutical suppliers. It is divided into three distinct sections:

- High-Level Information and Resources
- Framework Selection Assistance
- Framework-Specific Resources

This comprehensive approach aims to simplify the path to cybersecurity compliance, offering clear and actionable guidance at every step.

"We are thrilled to bring this valuable service and resource to manufacturers within the pharmaceutical industry," said David Bartlow, Program Manager. "This opportunity is available for a limited time we hope that businesses in the Commonwealth take advantage of this amazing opportunity.
