Flex Flynn "All American Champion Martial Artist"

A New Benchmark in Action-Adventure Fiction

On light terrain do not stop.
On contentious terrain do not attack. On traversable terrain do not let forces become isolated.”

Translated from, "The Art of War"

Sun Tzu(500BCE) Chinese Military Strategist

Showdown on Devils Tower marks a significant milestone in the action-adventure genre, masterfully intertwining Hedrick's profound martial arts expertise with a gripping narrative that promises to keep readers on the edge of their seats. The story is set against the awe-inspiring and enigmatic backdrop of Devils Tower, a location steeped in both natural beauty and historical intrigue. Readers follow the champions through their backstories and learn their motivations. The new benchmark is, "People love choices, so they choose their hero from alternate endings."

Synopsis of "Showdown on Devils Tower"

Four characters-Four countries

Flex Flynn (All-American Martial Artist) " Look at me, I have no scars or bruises. That's because I'm fast and smart. I will win the Showdown."

Olu Sulu (The Mauler of Africa) I have walked barefoot across the Sahara, the hot rocks will not bother me. My 19 children will see me win."

Sayd Mohammed Khan (Bengal Brusier) former circus strongman who can lift all three contenders. " My fist are mightier than your words."

Torchy Tanaka (Tokyo Tornado) "I'm Bushido. I have the spirit edge and My spin kick will send them all soaring off the tower."

Combining high-octane action, intricate plot twists, and rich character development, Showdown on Devils Tower is a testament to Hedrick's ability to create a narrative that is both thrilling and thought-provoking. Readers will be enthralled by the vivid descriptions, pulse-pounding sequences, and the profound exploration of themes such as brotherhood, honor, and resilience.
