

Addison Kaboom Town! Celebration Includes Amazing Air Show

Addison Airport Air Show Set to Thrill Crowds Across Entire Town

ADDISON, TX, UNITED STATES, June 13, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Wednesday, July 3, fabulous fireworks won't be the only thing launching across the North Texas skies above the Town of Addison. As has been the tradition for decades, the award-winning fireworks show will be preceded by an aerial spectacle that can be seen from miles away. The Addison Airport Air Show will begin at 7:30 p.m. that evening, two hours prior to the Addison Kaboom Town![®] fireworks show.

The air show has become a treasured component of Addison Kaboom Town!, which draws more than 500,000 people to the 4.4-square-mile municipality. And, because many of Addison's 200+ restaurants host watch parties and events, visitors can find fabulous festivities to enjoy while viewing both historic warbirds and thrilling aerobatic stunts.

Addison Kaboom Town returns July 3

Addison Kaboom Town is preceded by the Addison Airport Airshow, which features skydivers, aerobatic pilots, historic warbirds and more.

This year's Addison Air Show will begin with an exciting choreographed skydive by the Red River Skydivers. Two planes will carry a dozen divers, who traditionally jump with a massive American flag. Following the skydiving, viewers will watch history take to the skies as a cadre of historic warbirds fly both alone and in formation. Some of the featured planes in this year's air show include:

- Devil Dog, a B-25 flown by pilot Beth Jenkins and an entirely female crew.
- A P-40 Warhawk flown by Taylor Stevenson, one of the youngest warbird pilots in the country.
- Shangrila, a P-51 Mustang flown by Tom Ball
- Twin Beech (Beechcraft Model 18)
- Experimental aircraft Gamebird, flown by its creator Phillip Steinbeck
- A collection of T-6s flying in formation.

Those historic planes will be joined by state-of-the-art aerobatic planes piloted by some of the country's leading stunt pilots, including:

- Mike Gallaway, who has represented Team USA for the World Aerobatic Championships, and
- David Martin, a former U.S. and World Men's Freestyle Aerobatic Champion, and

The air show will end shortly after 9 p.m., when Martin returns to the skies in his twin engine Beech to perform a thrilling pyrotechnic flight that will light up the night sky.

Shortly after the air show, the Addison Kaboom Town!® 25-minute-long fireworks show will fill the North Texas skies with some of the world's finest synchronized pyrotechnics. While the celebration is certainly city-wide, one of the favorite places to enjoy the spectacle is in the town's 12-acre Addison Circle Park. Tickets to the party in Addison Circle Park are available for $10 for adults and $5 for children 2 and older and can be found here.
