

LowCountry Juneteenth "Hope After Fire" Gun Violence Prevention Awareness Community Event

Spreading Hope: Juneteenth Celebration Focuses on Healing and Preventing Gun Violence

NORTH CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA, UNITED STATES, June 17, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Every 1 Voice Matters, A Second Chance Resource Center Network United, Inc., The Hope Group, and J19 Week proudly present the LowCountry Juneteenth "Hope After Fire" Community Gun Violence Prevention Event. This impactful event will occur on Sunday, June 23rd, from 12:00 PM to 3:00 PM at the Old Verizon Center Parking Lot, 2401 Mall Drive, North Charleston, SC.

The "Hope After Fire" event aims to address the urgent issue of gun violence through the power of community and collaboration. This gathering will bring together a diverse group of community leaders, gun violence survivors, nonprofit organizations, and special guests who will share their insights and solutions to help guide our city toward a safer future.

Special Guests and Speakers:

Traci Fant – Renowned Community Advocate (Freedom Fighter Upstate)

Anthony & Tyreese McAllister – Founders of the Ayanna McAllister Foundation

Eric Watson – Deputy County Administrator of Public Safety

LT Wright – Representative of North Charleston Police Department (NCPD)

Deya Smith – Event Host and Gun Violence Survivor and more

These esteemed guests will offer their perspectives on gun violence prevention, share personal stories, and discuss initiatives to help rebuild our communities and create a safer environment.
