

GINIX secures top position on ProductHunt and becomes completely free

LONDON, MIDDLESEX, UNITED KINGDOM, June 14, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- GINIX, the cutting-edge online review management platform for companies, is thrilled to announce its recent achievement of taking first place on ProductHunt. This recognition also placed GINIX in the top 20 best projects on ProductHunt for the week, a testament to its innovative approach and user-friendly features.

To celebrate this milestone, GINIX is now available completely free, making its powerful tools accessible to all companies seeking to enhance their online reputation.

About GINIX:

GINIX is designed to help businesses track and analyze reviews from all major platforms. By using GINIX, companies can:

Track and analyze reviews: Consolidate and review customer feedback from various platforms in one place.

Instant alerts: Receive immediate notifications when new reviews are posted, allowing for prompt responses.

Sentiment analysis: Understand the tone of customer feedback with detailed sentiment analysis, helping to identify trends and areas for improvement.

Seamless integration: Easily integrate GINIX into existing workflows to streamline the process of managing and boosting brand reputation.

"We are incredibly proud to have received such a positive response on ProductHunt, and we're excited to offer GINIX for free to help even more companies improve their online presence," said Alex Bozhin, co-Founder and CEO of GINIX. "Our platform is designed to simplify the complex task of review management, providing businesses with the tools they need to succeed in today's digital landscape."

By offering its services for free, GINIX aims to empower companies of all sizes to take control of their online reputation, engage more effectively with their customers, and ultimately drive business growth.
