SCOTTSDALE, AZ, UNITED STATES, June 14, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Conor O'Callaghan, congressional candidate for District 1 in Arizona, is honored to be endorsed by the Penjamo Yaqui Pueblo Board of Directors. This makes O'Callaghan the only candidate in the primary race for AZ-01 to have the support of a tribal organization in a district that represents a substantial number of native Americans and tribal lands.

The Board released the following statement upon announcing the endorsement: "As one of the original Scottsdale neighborhoods with families living all over the city, the Penjamo Yaqui Pueblo Board of Directors feel strongly about supporting those who might best represent our community. We take very seriously the qualifications and commitment of those who might lead in those offices of our government, be that municipal, state, or federal government intended to lead and make decisions in our name.

"Our neighborhood has a long and proud history, and we want to ensure that our voice is heard when it comes to the selection of our elected officials. We believe it is crucial that our representatives share our values and have a deep understanding of the issues that matter most to our community.

It is with great sincerity that we put forth our endorsement for candidates who have demonstrated a deep understanding of the issues facing our community.”
