"To date we've held eight Festivals across the United States. This year the venue selections are special to us because we've always dreamed about bringing a real cultural experience to these larger, notable spaces. Everything we do is centered around the experience. We do our best to connect Black culture and people to luxe experiences through our live events, says Chiedozie (Dozie) Osondu, Head of Creative and Business Strategy of Fine Wine Series.

Fine Wine Series presents The Vine Dreams 2024 Festival:
Saturday, September 14, 2024 | 3 - 10 PM
Citi Field, 41 Seaver Way, Queens, NY 11368

Home Depot Backyard at Mercedes Benz Arena, 1 Backyard Way, Atlanta, GA 30313

The 2024 Fine Wine Festival, the brand's most influential event, draws massive crowds and spearhead changes in live events for the Fine Wine Series profile. Expanding their venue partners this year, The Festival looks forward to welcoming more than 2,500 millennial to Gen Z attendees. Since 2015, Fine Wine Series has hosted eight Festivals - the event series showcases delectable cuisine, lively music, stylish fashion, and encourages social engagement. The opulent 3-Hour wine tasting extravaganza highlights cuisine, wine and spirits for guests to experience along with interactive games and activity stations, live music and DJ performances. Former Festivals have introduced emerging Black-owned wines including: La Fete du Rosé, Michael Lavelle, Eldelheiss, Wade Cellar, to their attendees.

“Citi Field and Mets Events are proud to host the Fine Wine Series. We believe in delivering exceptional experiences to our guests, and this partnership allows us to bring the sophistication and enjoyment of culture to the exhilarating atmosphere of our ballpark. The unique blend of community, creativity, and entrepreneurship aligns with our core values and encapsulates the spirit of New York,” says Steve Calakos, Coordinator, Event Operations at New York Mets.

The Fine Wine Series “The Vine Dreams” 2024 Festival Series will announce all participating sponsors and performers the first week of August for National Black Business Month.
