MAD20 recognizes the positive impact we can have by improving the job prospects of underrepresented groups and former members of our military through initial and continuous ATT&CK skills development.”

Reggie Stevens, CEO

comprehensive provider of cybersecurity training and credentialing for MITRE ATT&CK Defender™ (MAD), which was recently spun out of MITRE Engenuity™, is thrilled to announce its commitment to donate $1,000,000 towards the training of over 2,000 cybersecurity professionals who are either from underrepresented backgrounds or are former members of the US armed forces. To carry out this effort, MAD20 will be partnering with various organizations across the country who embody this mission. Through this commitment, MAD20 hopes to begin to close the gender, ethnic, and socioeconomic gap to promote diversity in the industry.

MAD20's cybersecurity training program is recognized for its comprehensive curriculum on MITRE ATT&CK® - a curated knowledge base and model for cyber adversary behavior. MAD20's approach of continuous skills development and skills assessment serves the mission of teaching towards efficacy rather than static certifications.

"Organizations throughout the world trust MAD20 to continuously develop and assess their cyber practitioners on MITRE ATT&CK. Many of these organizations list MITRE ATT&CK proficiency as a critical job pre-requisite." said Reggie Stevens, CEO of MAD20. "As such, we recognize the positive impact we can have by improving the job prospects of underrepresented groups and former members of our military through initial and continuous skills development on MITRE ATT&CK."

The MITRE ATT&CK® Defender™ program, established in 2021, has quickly become a trusted name in cybersecurity education on the ATT&CK framework. With a focus on delivering practical, real-world training, MAD20 prepares individuals and organizations to defend against the latest cyber threats. Their state-of-the-art training modules cover a wide range of topics, from basic cybersecurity principles to advanced threat detection and response techniques.

About MAD20:

MAD20 Technologies is the new official home for MITRE ATT&CK Defender™ (MAD) training and certification programs, spun out from MITRE Engenuity™, a tech foundation for the public good and subsidiary of The MITRE Corporation (a not-for-profit corporation committed to the public interest, operating federally funded

R&D centers (FFRDCs) on behalf of U.S. government sponsors). MAD20 offers just-in-time training and certification on ATT&CK, helping defenders maintain the advantage over adversaries. Its MAD20 training and certification portal includes content and assessments originally developed by the same ATT&CK subject matter experts who created and maintain the ATT&CK framework knowledge base. Collectively, the MAD20 team represents over 40 years of experience among senior members of the U.S. military within cyber operations. The MAD20 system incorporates elements of the software developed by The MITRE Corporation on behalf of the U.S. Government.
