Jeff Kagan Interviews Brandon Barnham, Curiosity Lab at Peachtree Corners

ATLANTA, GA, USA, June 18, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Brandon Barnham of the Curiosity Lab at Peachtree Corners appeared as a guest on the Jeff Kagan Interviews podcast. Curiosity Lab is a smart city developmental community which combines the minds, forward thinking, new solutions and financial backing of a growing number of companies in this important and advancing space.

Brandon Barnham is the Executive Director, Chief Technology Officer and Assistant City Manager of the Curiosity Lab at Peachtree Corners.

After a private tour, Jeff Kagan was so impressed, he invited Brandon Barnham to be a guest on the Jeff Kagan Interviews podcast to give an update on this smart city project.

The new smart city sector is still in the very early stages of its growth and development. There are a number of smart city developments scattered around the United States and in fact, the world.

There are many smart city competitors of all sizes in many different sectors all pooling their resources building the smart city of tomorrow, today.

Curiosity Lab at Peachtree Corners is ready to celebrate their five-year anniversary.

This edition of Jeff Kagan Interviews touches on key growth opportunities and challenges faced by players and investors in this new and constantly changing space.
