Transportation, LLC, a privately held company specializing in secure, compliant logistics for the legal cannabis industry, today announced that the company will expand its partnership with multi-state operator Ethos Cannabis to include product transportation services in Ohio ahead of the state's adult-use cannabis launch.

Established in 2017, Talaria provides a critical infrastructure for the highly regulated industry and serves all states with legal programs.

Ethos Cannabis, with operations in Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, and Ohio, has partnered with Talaria for the past two years. Talaria's cash-in-transit subsidiary, National Secure Transport, handles all of Ethos' cash transportation needs, while Talaria covers its product transportation services in Pennsylvania.

We've worked closely with Ethos to develop a customized solution that prioritizes fast and reliable delivery, guaranteeing that their products are readily available to meet customer demand.”

Ari Raptis, CEO and founder of Talaria Transportation, LLC

“Our collaboration with Talaria has provided great value and logistical solutions to Ethos Cannabis over the past two years. We look forward to growing our partnership during this exciting time for Ohio cannabis,” said Gibran Washington, CEO of Ethos Cannabis.

The expanded partnership comes as Ohio recently opened applications for existing medical license holders to apply for dual-use recreational cannabis dispensary licenses. Applications opened on June 7 and sales are expected to commence in the coming weeks.

“We've worked closely with Ethos to develop a customized solution that prioritizes fast and reliable delivery, guaranteeing that their products are readily available to meet customer demand. Our team is honored to continue the work as Ohio begins recreational sales,” said Ari Raptis, CEO of Talaria.

Launched in 2017 by Ari Raptis, a Top 40 Under 40 Rising Star by Marijuana Venture, Talaria's combined transportation logistics companies employ more than 250 people across more than 30 states, utilizing retired police officers and military veterans to carry out all deliveries.
