RIDGEFIELD, CONNECTICUT, UNITED STATES, June 20, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Marcroft Medical, a leading distributor of top-notch medical equipment, is delighted to announce the availability of the Philips EPIQ Elite Diagnostic Ultrasound System at a highly competitive and budget-friendly price. This means that the advanced diagnostic capabilities of the EPIQ Elite are now within reach for clinics and hospitals, allowing them to enhance their imaging capabilities without straining their finances.

Philips EPIQ Elite

The Philips EPIQ Elite stands out for its exceptional imaging performance, providing clinicians unparalleled clarity and precision in diagnostic procedures. Its state-of-the-art technology sets a new benchmark in diagnostic imaging, ensuring precise and dependable results for various medical applications.

The Philips EPIQ Elite Ultrasound System is the best in its class, offering unparalleled imaging performance, advanced technology, and precision to provide the highest standard of patient care.”

Dr victor Terranova

“We are thrilled to bring the Philips EPIQ Elite to our customers at an affordable price,” said Dr Victor Terranova, CEO at Marcroft Medical. “This aligns with our mission to provide innovative solutions that enhance patient care. By making high-quality diagnostic tools like the EPIQ Elite more accessible, we support medical practices to deliver better health outcomes.”

Released in early 2019, the Epiq Elite from Philips Portable Ultrasound looks identical to the time-tested Epiq 7 except for the monitor. Epiq Elite gets a 24-inch HD MAX display for better visualization, brighter colors, and enhanced power efficiency.
