

Homes 4 the Homeless Raises $33,000 for Trinity School in Bellavista, Colombia, and Launches New Housing Campaign

SANTA ROSA, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, June 20, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Homes 4 the Homeless is proud to announce the successful conclusion of a fundraising campaign that raised $33,000 to support Trinity School in Bellavista, Colombia. This significant contribution will directly benefit the education of 272 children from 70 low-income families in the community.

Archie Kao, President of Homes 4 the Homeless, expressed his enthusiasm: "At Homes 4 the Homeless, our mission is to create lasting solutions to housing insecurity, and we are thrilled to be part of the transformative efforts in Bellavista, Colombia. Our success demonstrated the incredible impact we can achieve together."

Carolina Ravassa helped Trinity School in Bellavista as a teenager during her summers.

Carolina Ravassa, Executive Committee Member and Project Lead, shared her gratitude: "I am deeply moved by the generosity and commitment shown by everyone who supported the initial fundraiser for the families of Trinity School in Bellavista. I believe in the power of community and collaboration, and I am confident that together we can continue to bring positive change to Bellavista. Thank you for your unwavering support and dedication."

Carolina Ravassa, a celebrated actress known for her roles in Overwatch and Valorant, has a personal connection to Bellavista. She spent her summers teaching at a camp for low-income children in the area. Her passion for education and community development led her to work closely with Trinity School, actively raising funds to support its continued operation.

Phase 2: Expanding Housing with VESSEL Modular Homes

Building on the success of the initial fundraiser, Homes 4 the Homeless is excited to launch Phase 2 of its plans for Bellavista. This new campaign aims to raise funds and awareness to expand housing in the community by procuring VESSEL modular homes from our partners in China. The new E3 modular home from VESSEL is designed to be energy-efficient and eco-friendly, providing a sustainable living solution for couples or single occupants.

A Unique Opportunity to Make a Difference
In a special initiative to amplify our impact, for every additional $33,000 raised to support the Trinity Project, Homes 4 the Homeless will donate a brand-new E3 modular home to the Bellavista community. This ensures that each contribution not only supports education but also provides immediate, tangible housing solutions for those in need.
