

Safety Vision, LLC Awarded Mobile Video Systems Contract for Lamar Consolidated Independent School District (LCISD)

LCISD Expands School Bus Fleet and Partners with Safety Vision for new Mobile Video Systems

HOUSTON, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, June 21, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Safety Vision, LLC, a leading provider of mobile surveillance solutions, has been selected by the Lamar CISD (LCISD) to implement an advanced onboard camera system for their school buses. This project aims to safeguard students during their commute and boost parental confidence knowing their children are protected by state-of-the-art technology

Safety Vision was the clear choice for our new bus systems, enabling reliable video capture both inside and outside the buses.”

*Stephen Sluder, LCISD
Director of Transportation*

Lamar CISD continues their progress to be security and technology focused with their most recent bus purchases. With the 4112 Hybrid Video Recorder (HVR), complete camera coverage for the interior and exterior of the bus, and addition of wireless downloading capabilities through our Video Management Software (VMS), these buses will now be ready to capture anything that happens in or around the bus.

According to LCISD Transportation Director, Stephen Sluder, "Safety Vision was the clear choice for our new bus systems, enabling reliable video capture both inside and outside the buses. As we add new buses to our fleet, we want to continue promoting positive student behavior and ensuring timely resolution of parent inquiries. With wireless downloading, Lamar CISD will have secure access to video evidence from all bus cameras for incident investigations and resolutions."

About Lamar CISD

With nearly 42,000 students, Lamar CISD enjoys a diverse student population and strong community partnerships to create a bright future for all students. Under the leadership of the superintendent and the Board of Education, the District is undergoing a series of initiatives that will redesign, transform, and revitalize Lamar CISD Schools.
