NORWICH, CONNECTICUT, UNITED STATES, June 21, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Orchid Maids, a prominent cleaning service provider in Norwich and the nearby areas announces that its founder and owner, Shellena Pitterson, received the Women Rising Award from the Women's Business Development Council in 2023. The award, given to women who have achieved significant success in business, was presented during a ceremony where former tennis star Katrina M. Adams delivered the keynote address, underscoring the event's importance.

The Women Rising Award honors female entrepreneurs who achieve their business goals and demonstrate a steadfast commitment to customer satisfaction and the highest quality of service. Shellena Pitterson's achievement highlights her exceptional leadership at Orchid Maids, where she has built a reputation for outstanding service and rapport with her clients.

Orchid Maids has become a trusted name in Norwich, providing top-tier house cleaning services that prioritize efficiency, thoroughness, and client-specific needs. Under Shellena's guidance, the company has flourished, embodying the spirit of innovation and customer care that the Women Rising Award celebrates.
