

Métis Crossing Wins Prestigious Alberta Business Award of Distinction

SMOKY LAKE, AB, CANADA, June 21, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Métis Crossing, Alberta's first major Métis cultural destination, is excited to announce that it has won the 2024 Alberta Business Award of Distinction in the Indigenous Business category. This award highlights Métis Crossing's ongoing dedication to preserving and promoting Métis culture and heritage while fostering economic development within the Indigenous community.

Since its founding, Métis Crossing has been dedicated to providing a unique cultural and educational experience that celebrates the rich history and values of the Métis people. The center offers a wide range of year-round activities and learning opportunities, including traditional crafts, storytelling, and authentic Indigenous culinary experiences, all designed to deeply connect guests with the heritage of the Métis community.

Juanita Marois, CEO of Métis Crossing, expressed her joy at receiving the award, saying, "Winning in the Indigenous Business category is an incredible honor and a testament to the hard work and foresight of our Nation, leadership, and team. At Métis Crossing, we are passionate about sharing our entrepreneurial spirit and vibrant culture with the world, ensuring that Alberta's Métis people thrive for generations to come."
