NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, UNITED STATES, June 21, 2024

With Duron delivering "iconic songs from every era," including his own new single "Let's Just Call It Love," the AB shows this spring have become a hot ticket in a city with unlimited choices for live music. And during the course of his AB residency, Duron has been cast in the new Broadway musical "Maybe Happy Ending" alongside Emmy-winning actor Darren Criss. Yesterday's show marked a rare chance to see the singer in an intimate setting before he heads to Broadway.

Duron's blend of vintage crooner and modern pop star previously lifted him into the Top 8 of the Voice, and he brought all the romance of his palate of originals and standards to the Savage Interiors-designed club AB accented with marble, dark velvet, and a custom stage — a fitting match of musician and venue. Backed by a full band, Duron treated fans and music industry tastemakers to the full breadth of his repertoire.

Nashville's only woman-owned music venue, AB Hillsboro Village has hosted more than 200 events — including Steve Earle, Caitlyn Smith, and official AMERICANAFEST and Tin Pan South showcases — since opening its doors to music in March 2023. In addition to the concerts booked by the venue, AB is also available to rent for a wide range of events, whether it's a record release party for a local artist, an opening night gala for a film festival, a wedding, speaker, or fundraiser.
