

InAmerica Education to Host Admissions Entrance Training Camp for NYC Top K-1st Grade Private Schools

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, June 21, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- InAmerica Education's mission and specialty is to help its clients achieve admission to the top private and boarding schools in the United States for grades K-12, as well as top colleges and universities globally. For over 10 years, InAmerica has helped hundreds of families achieve their educational dreams and supported them through the private school application process.

Program background and goals:

This Admission Entrance Training Camp is specifically designed to prepare children and their families for the rigorous and competitive application process required by elite private schools. Assessments are used to evaluate various developmental and academic skills:

- Student playgroups or individual assessments
- First Look Insights Assessment will assess age-appropriate academic skills for learners applying to Horace Mann School and Riverdale Country School

This camp aims to provide targeted support to enhance their developmental skills and build confidence. InAmerica will also provide parents with resources and guidance to gain a better understanding of how to best support children through the process.

InAmerica's matriculation for the past 5 years (partial data):

Horace Mann School, Riverdale Country School, Trinity School, The Brearley School, Avenues: The World School, Collegiate School, The Chapin School, St. Bernard's School, The Browning School, Rye Country Day School, The Dalton School, Marymount School of New York, Columbia Grammar & Preparatory, Hackley School, The Packer Collegiate Institute, St. Anne's School, Ethical Culture Fieldston School, Grace Church School
