Executive Director of Design*

Dezy validates the agency's commitment to designing future-proof user experiences with innovation, which serves as a testament to their impact on clients' success.

Erin Lentz, Executive Director of Design at ArtVersion, expressed enthusiasm about the wins, "We are thrilled to be recognized in the web and design categories from the Dezy Awards. This accolade is evidence of our team's passion which drives us to create impactful and experiential designs.”

In addition to winning the Dezy Awards, ArtVersion has also garnered accolades as a Webby Awards honoree and nominee this year. Their UI/UX and web design project, "Art Is Everywhere," created for the Virginia A. Groot Foundation, earned them recognition in the category of web design for cultural institutions.

Additionally, the agency has received recognition as a Clutch Global and Champion winner for their overall portfolio that captured their 25-year expertise in the digital design industry. The prestigious achievements also commemorated the team's expertise in the web and design space.

The Dezy Awards is a platform that spotlights companies challenging the norm of design and all of its facets. The awards platform honors brilliance across various creative domains—including branding, web/app design, graphic design, animation, and architecture—and focuses on agencies and companies that exceed expectations in creativity and innovation. Dezy offers a litany of over 100 award categories for companies in the creative field to submit to, celebrating those that break the mold of innovation.

To win a Dezy Award, agencies must meet rigorous criteria that assess innovation, impact, aesthetic quality, and sustainability. By surpassing these standards, ArtVersion fortified their reputation as a creative innovator in the digital design space.

ArtVersion's recent accolade at the Dezy Awards further reinforces their standing as a leader in their field. The agency's commitment to user experience design is evident not only in their top ranking at the Dezy Awards but also in their passion for helping to create designs that transform their clients' visual stories into differentiators. As ArtVersion continues to push the boundaries of digital design, they remain focused on delivering high-quality results that drive client success in a dynamic market.
