

WAMC reaches its $1.25 million goal

WAMC/Northeast Public Radio has successfully achieved its goal of raising $1.25 million in its June Fund Drive.

ALBANY, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, June 21, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Friday afternoon, WAMC listeners rallied behind the increased revenue goal for the second time in 2024.

More than 8,000 donations to the Locked Box and Fund Drive combined helped to sustain WAMC's award-winning news and informative programming. The future of the station remains bright, with new members joining the family at a record rate of seven first-time donors per hour.

The messages of support from listeners during this drive were overwhelming. So much encouragement and support to see this mission through...I can't thank our family enough.”

Interim CEO Stacey Rosenberry

WAMC thanks Community Partners for joining the call to support both WAMC and three local organizations: The Food Pantries For The Capital District, The South Community Food Pantry sponsored by Berkshire Money Management, the Mohawk Hudson Humane Society and Animal Protective Foundation pet food pantries.

"The messages of support from listeners during this drive were overwhelming. So much encouragement and support to see this mission through...I can't thank our family enough," Interim CEO Stacey Rosenberry said.

News Director Ian Pickus adds, "I'm so proud of the new voices we've been hearing during the drive. I have the pleasure of working with these brilliant young people in the newsroom — they are the future of WAMC."

WAMC Fund Drives occur three times a year: in February, June, and October. Each drive's goal is to support the general operations of WAMC/Northeast Public Radio. WAMC broadcasts the highest-quality programs from NPR, American Public Media, BBC World Service as well as a wide range of award-winning local programming.

If you're interested in finding out more about our Fund Drives, or donating or volunteering, please contact Amber Sickles at 1-800-323-9262 ext. 133.
