We want our guests not just to see the Philippines but to feel it, to connect with its people and its land in a way that leaves a positive impact.”

Renzel Montesclaros, Lead Guide at Biking the Philippines

The cycling tours traverse diverse landscapes, including secluded beaches, lush forests, and picturesque villages. Participants are given the opportunity to engage with local communities, partake in traditional activities, and enjoy regional cuisine, fostering a deeper connection to the places they visit.

“We aim to offer travelers a transformative experience,” says Renzel Montesclaros, lead guide at Biking the Philippines. “We want our guests not just to see the Philippines but to feel it, to connect with its people and its land in a way that leaves a positive impact.”

The company's tours cover various regions, each offering unique experiences. Highlighted tours include:

Cebu/Bohol 14-Day Tour: This tour combines the historical and cultural landmarks of Cebu with the natural wonders of Bohol and Siquijor, including the famous Chocolate Hills and pristine beaches.

Palawan 14-Day Tour: Guests can explore the stunning beauty of Palawan, including hidden beaches, lush forests, and vibrant marine life.

Negros 7-Day Tour: This tour offers a journey through the scenic landscapes of Negros, highlighting its rich heritage and natural beauty.

Siargao 7-Day Tour: Known for its surfing spots and beautiful islands, Siargao provides an adventurous and picturesque cycling experience.

Biking the Philippines emphasizes sustainable travel practices, ensuring minimal environmental impact while providing meaningful travel experiences. By integrating cultural activities and interactions with local communities, these tours offer an authentic way to explore the Philippines.

The approach to tourism aligns with global trends towards eco-friendly travel, catering to a growing market of environmentally conscious travelers. The integration of cultural immersion with sustainable practices presents a meaningful way to explore the Philippines, setting an example for responsible tourism.
