-- The art world is about to witness the emergence of a unique and compelling voice. Mariia Offidani lurkova, widely known as MARU, is thrilled to announce her debut as a professional artist along with the launch of her new Portfolio website.

MARU, originally from Russia, has a rich background, having lived in Italy before settling in Mexico. Her diverse experiences are vividly reflected in her art, which draws inspiration from renowned artists like Paul Gauguin, Henri Matisse, and Egon Schiele. Her work presents a captivating blend of styles and themes, offering a fresh perspective on the modern artistic approach.

There are always flowers for those who want to see them.”

"My style, even if it might appear somewhat dull and overused, is, in reality, a new take on the modern artistic approach that we see around, showing a different perspective of the world I am surrounded by and tries to show and educate the public on a range of emotions that seems to have been lost in the wake of the evolution and progress of our modern society," said MARU.
