

CAC President Marc Corsi Awarded the Talent Ambassador Award at the annual “Nit del Talent” Ceremony in Barcelona

WASHINGTON, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, UNITED STATES, June 24, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Marc Corsi, President of the Catalan American Council, was awarded the Talent Ambassador Award at the “Nit del Talent” Award ceremony in Barcelona, hosted by the Impulsa Talentum Foundation. Mr. Bru Recolons, entrepreneur and founder of Impulsa Talentum, presented him with the award. Impulsa Talentum is a thriving ecosystem that incubates, promotes, and fosters Catalan business talent.

Corsi, an experienced entrepreneur with decades of accolades, received this award in spirit with his greater mission of building out the CAC’s community, outreach, and partnerships in Barcelona. Thus, the Impulsa Talentum Foundation has recognized Corsi for generating business relations and discovering Catalan talent across the Atlantic between Catalonia and the United States through the CAC’s aptly named Transatlantic Bridge Program. At their annual “Nit del Talent” Ceremony, CAC Press Secretary Xavier Vilà was one of the award presenters.

Being awarded Talent Ambassador by Impulsa Talentum Foundation, Marc Corsi was consistent with the CAC President’s week of successful business meetings with various Catalan dignitaries, politicians, and entrepreneurs. Discussions with Catalan dignitaries and organizations included partnerships and possibilities regarding the CAC’s celebratory America’s Cup Event in Barcelona this September. Marc Corsi has been utmostly pleased with his week:

“The Talent Ambassador award serves as tangible proof of my mission with the CAC and what I aim to achieve in Barcelona and Catalonia proper. To cap off a week of productive discussions on important Catalan issues, exciting partnerships, and constructive meetings has been a joy with this award. I truly appreciate the recognition from Bru and the entire Impulsa Talentum

Marc Corsi Receives his Talent Ambassador Award with Bru Recolons (left) and Michael Blackman (center)

Foundation. I am certain this catalyzes a productive and lasting partnership,” said CAC President Marc Corsi.

In line with President Corsi’s outlook on the award and the CAC’s mission, Bru Recolons, Founder and CEO of the Impulsa Talentum Foundation, has been grateful for Marc Corsi’s contribution towards Catalan Entrepreneurship:

from left to right: Michael Blackman, Zina Jarrahi Cinker, Bru Recolons, Marc Corsi, John Hoffman

“Marc Corsi is a prominent figure in communications and marketing, known for his ability to position his clients ahead of the competition. His experience and network are invaluable tools that will allow the Impulsa Talentum Foundation to grow relationships with the wider Catalan American community and to open a new venture in San Francisco. We are grateful to Marc for making this possible and look forward to working with him and the CAC in the future,” said Impulsa Talentum President Bru Recolons.

Ivan Kiryakin
Catalan American Council
email us here
+1 415-985-5277

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/722309756>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2024 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.