The Magic Mushroom Gummies are part of Outer Space CBD's innovative line of products. Made from a proprietary blend of legal psychedelic mushrooms, including Amanita muscaria, these gummies provide a distinct and enjoyable experience. Outer Space CBD ensures that these gummies are safe, effective, and adhere to all necessary regulations and standards.

Each gummy is infused with precisely measured extracts, providing a consistent and controlled experience. Available in various flavors, they are a convenient option for exploring the benefits of mushroom products. Designed for easy incorporation into a daily wellness routine, these gummies offer a discreet way to experience their effects.

THCA Flower

Outer Space CBD's THCA Flower is another notable product. Recognized for its high potency and purity, this flower is carefully cultivated and processed to maintain its natural integrity. This product is suitable for those seeking a concentrated form of THC, reflecting the company's expertise in cultivation and adherence to quality standards.

In addition to Magic Mushroom Gummies and THCA Flower, Outer Space CBD also offers Delta 9 Gummies. Crafted with the same attention to detail and quality, these gummies provide a reliable and consistent way to consume Delta 9 THC. Available in various dosages and flavors, they cater to a wide range of preferences and needs.

What Sets Outer Space CBD Apart
Outer Space CBD distinguishes itself as a comprehensive provider in the CBD and cannabinoid industry. Their operations encompass every stage of production, from cultivation and processing to creating retail-ready products. This comprehensive approach ensures stringent quality control and allows them to offer reliable and effective products. By managing the entire supply chain, Outer Space CBD can maintain high standards of quality and consistency, ensuring that each product meets its exact specifications.
