Market Outlook

The blepharoplasty market is expected to continue its growth trajectory, reaching $5.76 billion by 2028, with a CAGR of 8.2%. Major trends in the forecast period include a focus on natural results, integration of technology for precision, and increased demand for non-surgical alternatives.

Renal Disease Driving Market Growth

The increasing prevalence of renal disease, which can affect eyelid positions and contribute to eye puffiness, is expected to drive market growth. Patients with renal disease should undergo renal function checks before undergoing blepharoplasty surgery.

Major Players and Innovations

Leading companies in the blepharoplasty market, including Zimmer Biomet Holdings Inc. and Galderma SA, are focusing on developing advanced technologies such as plasma technology. Plasma technology uses ionized gases for non-surgical skin tightening and rejuvenation, particularly around the eyelids.

Regional Insights

North America dominated the blepharoplasty market in 2023, with Asia-Pacific expected to be the fastest-growing region. The comprehensive report provides detailed insights into regional dynamics, market trends, and growth opportunities.
