Digital HR Solutions Driving Market Growth

The rising adoption of digital HR solutions is a major factor propelling the performance appraisal and management software market. These solutions leverage SMAC technologies (social, mobile, analytics, and cloud) to enhance HR efficiency and effectiveness. Performance appraisal software automates and streamlines the appraisal process within digital HR solutions, benefiting both HR professionals and employees. For instance, User

Guiding, a US-based user onboarding platform, reported in January 2023 that the HR software market was expected to reach $10 billion by 2022, with 74% of businesses planning to increase spending on HR technology. As digital HR solutions become more prevalent, so does the demand for performance appraisal and management software.

Major Players and Market Trends

Leading companies in the performance appraisal and management software market, like IBM and Workday, are actively developing innovative solutions, such as performance management systems (PMS), to maintain their market position.

A PMS is a systematic process for establishing clear employee performance expectations, tracking progress, and providing feedback and development opportunities. For instance, Air India, an Indian flag carrier airline, announced Rise.AI, a digitized appraisal system, in July 2023. This system is designed to be fair, transparent, and completely digitized, with clearly defined job descriptions and specific performance goals.
