biggest life lesson she has learned. Italia responded with a powerful message on resiliency, stating, “We all face challenges, and I assure you, you can overcome any challenge that comes your way through perseverance and determination.” This answer resonated deeply with the audience and judges, showcasing her inner strength and wisdom.

Italia was also questioned about her plans for using her new platform as Ms. New York US Nation. She articulated her vision with passion, explaining, “I plan to engage in charity work and organize workshops that focus on homeless single mothers, education, empowerment, and entrepreneurship. These initiatives are close to my heart, and I am committed to making a tangible difference in these areas.” Her commitment to social causes and community service demonstrated her dedication to leveraging her title for the greater good.

Additionally, when asked to introduce herself and share more about her background, Italia provided an inspiring overview of her journey. “I am Italia Tornabene, an author and businesswoman. I have written several books, including 'Easy Investing,' which focuses on unconventional methods of building a diverse and resilient investment portfolio; 'Decoding Men,' which provides insights into understanding male behavior and relationship dynamics; and the children's book 'Baxter Learns to Save,' which teaches young readers the importance of saving money. I am also excited to announce my upcoming autobiography, 'Suits to Stilettos,' which chronicles my personal and professional journey.”

Italia's entrepreneurial spirit extends beyond her literary accomplishments. She has founded multiple successful ventures:

- IVT Fitness: A fitness business catering to individuals who travel frequently and need a reliable gym buddy or trainer. The business emphasizes personalized fitness plans, flexibility, and convenience. IVT Fitness offers one-on-one personal training, virtual training sessions, and group fitness workshops tailored to individual fitness goals.

- Tornabene Wines: Co-founded to produce high-quality wines with a focus on catering to those with specific dietary needs, such as individuals with acid reflux. The first wine, named after the Tornabene brand, is crafted to provide a refined drinking experience without the discomfort often associated with traditional wines. The winery employs sustainable practices to ensure environmentally friendly production methods.

- Life Coaching: Italia's life coaching business helps individuals achieve their highest potential through personalized guidance and support. Her coaching services focus on holistic success and wellness, encompassing various aspects of personal and professional development. Italia offers one-on-one coaching, workshops, and seminars on topics such as entrepreneurship, personal growth, and wellness.

Italia's academic achievements further highlight her dedication to excellence and continuous learning. She holds three degrees and is a proud member of two honor societies, underscoring her commitment to education and intellectual growth.

Italia's dedication to resilience, community service, and empowerment resonated deeply with the audience and judges alike, securing her the crown and the title of Ms. New York US Nation. As she embarks on this new chapter, Italia is eager to leverage her platform to inspire and uplift others, staying true to the values that guided her to this monumental achievement.
