“We're delighted to share this remarkable achievement,” expressed Jon Franz, President of Franchise Clearly. “Q1 has been a period of tremendous success for us, and we're thrilled to be part of a solution that benefits everyone involved.”

“Owners exiting their businesses receive the financial security they deserve, while corporate welcomes enthusiastic new owners into their network. Lastly, buyers have the opportunity to join one of the most successful franchise brands in American history,” continued Franz.

Stubbornly high interest rates have had little effect on buyer interest. Although more expensive for buyers to borrow money for transactions, the company reports an impressive average of 4 offers per listing so far in 2024.

Looking ahead, Franchise Clearly anticipates a potential record year, with nearly $30 million in pending deals in the pipeline.
