Government Services*

The ITSSS-2 BPA is a multibillion dollar multiple-award contract vehicle, serving as the FBI's primary means for acquiring IT supplies and services to support its mission over the next eight years. This comprehensive contract vehicle includes one base year and up to seven individual option years, making it the largest of its kind for the FBI.

“We are proud to have the opportunity to build on a decade of support to the FBI and help the Bureau meet its mission,” said Kevin Wideman, CEO of KGS. “This award reflects our commitment to excellence and our ability to deliver innovative IT solutions that meet the critical needs of our federal clients. We look forward to continuing our partnership with the FBI and contributing to their success in safeguarding the nation.”

Kadiak LLC will be responsible for delivering a full spectrum of enterprise IT services, including IT modernization and cloud migration solutions.
